Independent Auditors' Report on Review of Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information

To the Shareholder of Silknet JSC

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated interim statement of financial position of Silknet JSC (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") as at 30 June 2026, and the condensed consolidated statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the six-month period then ended, and notes to the condensed consolidated interim financial information (the "condensed consolidated interim financial information"). Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of this condensed consolidated interim financial information in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this condensed consolidated interim financial information based on our review.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410 Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity. A review of condensed consolidated interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying condensed consolidated interim financial information as at and for the six-month period ended 30 June 2026 is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

2. Basis of accounting

(a) Statement of compliance

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting, and should be read in conjunction with the Group's last annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended 31 December 2025 ("last annual consolidated financial statements"), which are publicly available on the Company's web page: www.silknet.com.

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not include all of the information required for a complete set of financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards ("IFRSs"). However, selected explanatory notes are included to explain events and transactions that are significant to an understanding of the changes in the Group's financial position and performance since the last annual consolidated financial statements.

(b) Going concern

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

All financial information presented in GEL has been rounded to the nearest thousands, except when otherwise indicated.

4. Use of estimates and judgments

In preparing these condensed consolidated interim financial statements, management has made judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an on-going basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

The significant judgements made by management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those that applied to the last annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended 31 December 2025.

(b) Eurobonds

On 31 January 2022, the Group successfully placed USD 300,000 thousand of Eurobonds due in 2027 carrying an interest rate of 8.375% (the “New Eurobonds”) on the Euronext Dublin Exchange. Interest was payable semi-annually on 31 January and 31 July of each year, commencing from 31 July 2022. The proceeds from the New Eurobonds were used by the Group in 2022 to refinance USD 200,000 thousand effective Eurobonds maturing in 2024 (USD 197,400 thousand outstanding at that time) and repaid unsecured local bonds of GEL 34,981 thousand (principal paid – GEL 34,000 thousand).

In 2024, the Group implemented a consent solicitation to modify the terms and conditions of New Eurobonds, increasing its distributions flexibility by introducing “leverage-based” basket in the Restricted Payments test, allowing the Company to proceed with Restricted Payments until its Consolidated Leverage Ratio reaches 1.75x. In connection with consent solicitation process, the Group incurred expenses of GEL 3,947 thousand. These costs were recognised as an adjustment to the carrying amount of New Eurobond liability and is amortised over the remaining term of the modified instrument using the revised effective interest rate.

On 1st of September 2025, the Company and its intermediate parent, Silk Road Group Holding LLC (“SRGH” or “Intermediate Parent”) invited holders of Silknet Eurobonds (“Noteholders”), to participate in the tender offer, as a result of which SRGH announced its intention to issue USD 400,000 thousand Eurobonds, guaranteed by Silknet and due in 2030 (“New Notes”) and invited Noteholders to tender their notes for purchase for cash, to be settled from the proceeds of the New Notes issuance.

Concurrently, the Group initiated actions to (i) cancel the notes purchased pursuant to the tender offer, (ii) facilitate onward lending by SRGH of any cash or net proceeds from the issuance of the New Notes to the Group, to be applied towards meeting its obligations under the Silknet Eurobonds, and (iii) modify the terms and conditions of the Silknet Eurobonds to provide for the mandatory early redemption of any Silknet Eurobonds that remain outstanding following the completion of the tender offer.

On 15 September 2025, SRGH issued USD 400,000 thousand in New Notes due 2030 guaranteed by Silknet and other subsidiaries of the SRGH.

From the proceeds of the New Notes, on 16 September 2025, for a total consideration of GEL 472,127 thousand (USD 174,532 thousand), SRGH purchased, and the Group forwarded for cancellation, a portion of Silknet’s outstanding Eurobonds with a nominal amount of GEL 456,583 thousand (USD 168,786 thousand) (out of a total outstanding nominal balance of GEL 540,384 thousand (USD 199,765 thousand) together with the accrued interest of GEL 4,993 thousand (USD 1,846 thousand), with the difference representing tender and consent fees in the amount of GEL 10,551 thousand (USD 3,900 thousand). The proceeds from borrowings and the repurchase of Eurobonds represent non-cash transactions and cannot be traced in the consolidated statement of cash flows.

The remaining balance of Silknet Eurobonds amounted of GEL 84,464 thousand (USD 30,979 thousand) was fully redeemed by the Group on 3 October 2025 as part of mandatory early redemption.

Repurchased Silknet Eurobonds were derecognized from the balance sheet at their amortised cost and the difference between the repurchased amount and the amortized cost was recognised under the loss on derecognition of financial instrument in profit or loss in the amount of GEL 4,867 thousand (USD 1,799 thousand).

As a result of the refinancing structure described above, the Group and SRGH executed an intercompany loan agreement (“the Loan”), under which the total consideration of GEL 472,127 thousand (USD 174,352 thousand), funded through SRGH’s Eurobond proceeds, was transferred to the Group under back-to-back commercial terms and recognized as a loan payable to the intermediate parent. The Loan matures in 2030, bears interest at a fixed rate of 7.5% per annum, payable semi-annually, and is measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

During 2025, the Group repaid GEL 66,775 thousand (USD 24,532 thousand) of the Loan principal. Consequently, the outstanding nominal balance of the loan payable to intermediate parent was GEL 396,795 thousand (USD 150,000 thousand) as at 30 June 2026 (31 December 2025: GEL 404,265 thousand/ USD 150,000 thousand).

(c) Financial guarantee

On 15 September 2025, SRGH issued USD 400,000 thousand in New Notes due 2030 guaranteed by Silknet and other subsidiaries of the SRGH. The guarantors are the subsidiaries that represent 5% of SRGH’s consolidated EBITDA or 5% of SRGH’s consolidated revenue. SRGH is obliged to maintain over the life of the New Notes the guarantor package covering at least 70% of SRGH’s consolidated total assets. Silknet is a Guarantor (see note 16), on its standalone basis as at and for the year ended 31 December 2024 had an Adjusted EBITDA of GEL 374.7 million, representing 91% of the Group’s consolidated Adjusted EBITDA.

As a restricted subsidiary and a guarantor, Silknet is subject to various covenants, as described in the Terms and Conditions included in Listing Particulars publicly available on Silk Road Group Holding’s website: <https://srgh.ge/en/investor>

As at 30 June 2026, the Group has complied with all covenants and expects to remain in compliance throughout the term of SRGH New Notes. Accordingly, loans and borrowings balances (excluding balances contractually repayable within 12 months from the reporting date) are classified as non-current as at 30 June 2026.

15. Leases

The Group's lease contracts largely relate to leases of various sites (i.e. land, rooftop surface areas, space in cellular towers and space for fibre cables, etc.) related to placement of the Group's telecommunication equipment. The Group recognises the right-of-use asset and respective lease liability for the contracts that are long-term either contractually or substantially.

As lease agreements include option to extend the lease, significant judgement is required in determining whether these optional periods should be included when determining the lease term. As a lessee, optional periods are included in the lease term if the Group is reasonably certain it will exercise an extension option or will not exercise a termination option; this depends on an analysis by management of all relevant facts and circumstances including the leased asset's nature and purpose, the economic and practical potential for replacing the asset and any plans that the Group has in place for the future use of the asset. While determining the lease term, management considers its strategic planning horizon, anticipated technological developments, and economic penalties associated with contract termination, including costs of removing leasehold improvements or relocating, and indirect costs such as disruption to business. The value of the right-of-use asset and lease liability will be greater when extension options are included in the lease term

Since management applies the judgement in determining the effective lease terms, the lease terms used for IFRS 16 purposes may differ from the contractual minimum lease periods. Summary of differences is as follows:

|                                  | Minimum initial contractual lease period | Lease term estimate used for IFRS 16 purposes upon transition |
|----------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|

| Leases for land and other        | 1-6 months*                                     | 5 years                                                              |

* Non-cancellable period

Lease terms are reassessed if a significant event or change in circumstances occurs relating to the leased assets that is within the control of the Group; such changes usually relate to strategic business decisions made by the Group. Where such changes alter the Group's assessment of whether it is reasonably certain to exercise options to extend, or not terminate leases, the lease term is reassessed and the lease liability is remeasured.

When measuring lease liabilities for leases, the Group discounts lease payments using its incremental borrowing rate at the date of lease recognition. The weighted-average rate applied for lease liability balance as at 30 June 2026 is approximately 12% as lease contracts are denominated in GEL.

*In 2025 the previously assessed lease terms expired and management changed its operational strategy, resulting in an updated assessment of the reasonably certain threshold for exercising lease extension options and the expected enforceability period of the leases. As a result, the Group reassessed the lease terms and determined the lease terms as three years for leases of rooftop surface areas and five years for leases of land and other. As a result of the reassessment, the lease liabilities and corresponding right-of-use assets increased by GEL 16,083 thousand for rooftop surface areas and by GEL 27,250 thousand for land and other, respectively.

Payables for non-current assets and payable for licenses and broadcasting rights represent the discounted value of deferred payments mainly related to the acquisition of property and equipment for network upgrade and coverage expansion projects.

Major portion of payables for non-current assets and payable for licenses and broadcasting rights are denominated either in USD or EUR and thus are exposed to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations (see also note 17).

The financial guarantee to SRGH with the amount of USD 400,000 thousand notes has been valued by an independent external valuator and the fair value of guarantee at the grant date (15 September 2025) was USD 3,072 thousand, out of which Silknet's share represents 63% USD 1,925 thousand.

In 2026, the original fair value of the guarantee liability is amortized through the statement of profit and loss and other comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the tenor of the New Notes with the amount of GEL 515 thousand (2025: nil).

The Company estimated expected credit losses to be lower than the amortized portion of the originally recognized guarantee liability as at 30 June 2026.

The terms and conditions of the New Notes require the Intermediate Parent together with Group to comply with certain financial and non-financial covenants, details of which are included in listing particular, publicly available on the website of SRGH. The Company does not expect material risks associated with the Intermediate Parent's ability to comply with the covenants.

17. Fair values and financial risk management

The Group has determined fair values of financial assets and liabilities using valuation techniques disclosed in the last annual consolidated financial statements. Management believes that the fair value of the Group's financial assets and liabilities, approximates their carrying amounts.

The Group's financial risk management objectives and policies are consistent with those disclosed in the last annual consolidated financial statements.

(i) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Group if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations, and arises principally from the Group's trade receivables, bank balances and financial guarantee. Credit risk is consistent with those disclosed in the last annual consolidated financial statements and the Group has not faced a significant financial loss during the six-month period ended 30 June 2026.

(ii) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting the obligations associated with its financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The Group's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Group's reputation.

For this purpose, the Group makes short-term forecasts for cash flows based on estimated financial needs determined by the nature of operating activities. As a rule these needs are envisaged on an annual and monthly basis. In order to manage its financial needs the Group receives cash flows on a daily basis from customers. This ensures that the Group has enough cash to meet its financial obligations. Typically, the Group ensures that it has sufficient cash on demand to meet expected operational expenses for a period of 30 days, including the servicing of financial obligations; this excludes the potential impact of extreme circumstances that cannot reasonably be predicted, such as natural disasters.

The management believes that, as at and for the foreseeable future, the Group has sufficient funds to meet its liabilities as they fall due. Management's assessment is based on a number of factors, including the sufficient cash balance (note 12), positive and growing adjusted EBITDA (note 8), a growing customer base for key business segments and new network deployment (note 9).

(iii) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices, such as foreign exchange rates, interest rates and equity prices will affect the Group's income or the value of its holdings of financial instruments. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimising return.

The Group does not apply hedge accounting in order to manage volatility in profit or loss.

Currency risk

As at 30 June 2026, the Group's exposure to currency risk is mainly attributable to USD-denominated Loan. To partially hedge an open foreign currency position, the Company invests its liquid funds in USD-denominated instruments, such as deposits. Additionally, a portion of the Company's operational activities are also denominated in hard currencies. The Company uses forward agreements to mitigate the impact foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations on operations.

These instruments meet the definition of derivatives under IFRS 9 Financial Instruments and are initially measured at fair value. Under IFRS 9, derivatives are instruments which are subsequently measured at FVTPL.

As at 30 June 2026, the Group recognized derivative liability with a fair value of GEL 5,745 thousand (31 December 2025: derivative liability with a fair value of GEL 852 thousand). Discounted cash flow models are used for fair value measurement of derivatives, which is categorized within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. Estimation uncertainties related to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations does not have material effect on the financial statements as at 30 June 2026 and 31 December 2025.

The Group's exposure to foreign currency risk was as follows:

To reduce future profit volatility due to foreign exchange rate fluctuations, foreign currency derivative contracts are used to hedge future cash outflows, particularly those related to unrecognized operational and capital expenditures denominated in hard currencies, as well as payment for loans and borrowing. These outflows are fully hedged from January 2026 through the end of 2026, with an average forward exchange rate of GEL 2.9 for USD-denominated forwards and GEL 3.3 for forwards denominated in EUR.

Sensitivity analysis

A reasonably possible strengthening/(weakening) of GEL, as indicated below, against the USD and EUR as at 30 June 2026 and 31 December 2025 would have affected the measurement of financial instruments denominated in USD and EUR and affected equity and profit or loss before taxes by the amounts shown below. The currency movements would have no direct impact on other comprehensive income or equity. The analysis assumes that all other variables, in particular interest rates, remain constant and ignores any impact of forecast sales and purchases.

Interest rate risk

The Company's liquid assets are subject to interest rate risk. Existing borrowings are fixed-rate instruments and do not expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risks. However, liquidity positions denominated in local currency and held as cash and cash equivalents are partially subject to floating rates tied to the National Bank of Georgia's monetary policy rate. Management does not have a formal policy of determining how much of the Group's exposure should be to fixed or variable rates, however, when placing cash with banks, management uses its judgment to determine whether a fixed or variable interest rate is expected to be more favourable to the Group.

Exposure to interest rate risk

The Company's exposure to interest rate risk at the reporting date was as follows:

| '000 GEL                  | 30 June 2026 | 31 December 2025 |
|----------------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------|

| Cash and cash equivalents        | 13,541              | 6,126                   |

Fair value sensitivity analysis for fixed rate instruments

The Group does not account for any material fixed-rate financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss or fair value through other comprehensive income. Therefore, a change in interest rates at the reporting date would not have a material effect in profit or loss or in equity.

* On 30 September 2023 and 14 December 2023 ("grant date") the Company has entered into two agreements with its two key management members that entitles these employees to different types of awards, mainly dependent upon the choice of the employee, but also subject to certain events and conditions. Award #1 implies granting of a cash-settled equity instrument of the Company to the employee, with no service condition and its fair value is close to nil as at 30 June 2026, as the probability of meeting the non-vesting condition stipulated under the contract is remote. Award #2, to which employees are entitled from 1 January 2025, is calculated as a certain percentage of forecast dividend distributions by the Company for the lifetime of the employee and is not subject to service conditions. Award #3 envisages granting the employee a certain percentage of the Company's future value (calculated pursuant to contractual terms), settled in cash, after 2027, and is subject to a service condition till the end of 2027. Both awards meet the definition of other long-term employee benefits under IAS 19 Employee Benefits and are initially measured at the present value of future benefits accruing to the employees. Award #2 is expensed as incurred as no service condition is attached to it, whereas the value of Award #3 is spread over the service period.

If in aggregate the benefit amount calculated under Award #3 is higher than Award #2, the entity recognizes additional expense in profit or loss in the period, when employee benefit calculated under Award #3 exceeds the benefit amount calculated under Award #2. In 2023, as at grant date, the Company recognized employee benefits expense of GEL 17,318 thousand in profit or loss calculated under Award #2 conditions, as it represented an unconditional liability as at 31 December 2023 and its estimated present value was the largest amongst the three of the available awards.

In 2024, the changes in circumstances related to the consent solicitation process of Eurobond covenant (see also note 14(b)), affected the calculation of the benefit amount under the Award #2 due to the adjusted payout ratio. In 2025, further changes were made to the payout ratio assumptions used in calculating the benefit amount under Award #2.

These changes remained in compliance with Georgian legislation, in particular the new Law of Georgia on Entrepreneurs, and the amended terms and conditions of Eurobond, resulting in additional expense of GEL 401 thousand for the six month period ended 30 June 2025. No significant changes were made to other assumptions used in calculation of the benefit amount under the Award #2.

As at 30 June 2026, employee benefit calculated under Award #3 in aggregate exceeded the benefit amount calculated under Award #2, accordingly Company recognized additional expense in profit or loss in the amount of GEL 9,216 thousand.

For the six month period ended 30 June 2026, the Company paid GEL 945 thousand in accordance with contractual terms.
